

WEATHER REPORT.

Washington, Oct. 27.—Weather forecast for Sunday and Monday: For Virginia—Fair Sunday. Monday increasing cloudiness and probably rain; light variable winds, becoming fresh to brisk northeasterly. For North Carolina—Rain Sunday. Monday increasing cloudiness; occasional rain in Eastern portions; fair in Western portion; fresh to brisk northeasterly winds, possibly becoming dangerous on the coast.

Norfolk and Vicinity.

Fair; no change in temperature; light variable winds.

METEOROLOGICAL DATA.

October 27, 1900.
Maximum temperature ..... 74
Minimum temperature ..... 60
Normal temperature ..... 69
Departure from normal ..... plus 5
Departure from normal since January 1st ..... plus 450
Rainfall in past 24 hours ..... 0
Rainfall since first of month ..... 3.22
Mean relative humidity ..... 94

CALENDAR.

Sun rises at 6:25 a. m. and sets at 5:12 p. m.

TIDES.

High water at 11:55 a. m. and 12:14 p. m. Low water at 6:29 a. m. and 6:22 p. m.

DIED.

MORSE.—Suddenly, at the residence of his father, Mr. J. H. MORSE, on the 27th, at 10 o'clock, Mr. NORMAN B. MORSE, son of C. W. and the late Laura V. Morse, in the 19th year of his age. The funeral service will take place from the residence THIS (Sunday) AFTERNOON at 3 o'clock. Friends and acquaintances are respectfully invited to attend.

SAMUEL.—At 10 o'clock p. m., Friday, October 26th, Mr. JOHN J. SAMUEL, in the 57th year of his age. The funeral from the Sacred Heart Church, York street, MONDAY MORNING, October 29th, at 10 o'clock. Friends of the family invited to attend.

You are invited to personally examine our assortment of Marble and Granite Memorials—the largest retail stock in the South. If unable to call, write for free illustrated Catalogue. We guarantee safe delivery of shipment and pay the freight.

The Couper Marble Works (Established 1848). 125 to 126 Bank st. Norfolk, Va.

MEETINGS.

B. P. O. ELKS. Members of NORFOLK LODGE NO. 28, B. P. O. E., are requested to assemble at the lodge room MONDAY (to-morrow), October 29th, at 9 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of paying the last sad tribute of respect to our deceased brother, J. J. SAMUEL. Mourning badges and white gloves, neighboring lodges cordially invited to attend.

W. B. LANGLEY, Secretary.

Office of the Ghent Company, No. 236 Main st., Norfolk, Va. October 19th, 1900.

A GENERAL MEETING OF THE stockholders of THE GHENT COMPANY will be held at the office of the Company, No. 236 Main street, Norfolk, Va., on THURSDAY, the 22nd day of November, 1900, at 1 P. M., the said meeting being upon the call of stockholders holding together one-tenth of the capital stock. J. M. WILKINSON, Secretary.

THE ANNUAL MEETING OF THE stockholders of THE CONSUMERS' BREWERY COMPANY of Norfolk, Va., will be held at Room 3, Academy of Music Building, on MONDAY, November 12th, at 12 o'clock noon. JOHN F. O'CONNELL, Secretary.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC Monday Night, October 29th. Lewis Morrison's Company in a complete and elaborate production of

FAUST. Prices—25c, 50c, 75c, and $1.00. Seats now on sale. oct28-31

ACADEMY OF MUSIC Wed. and Thurs. Oct. 31, Nov. 1.

J. A. MATINEE THURSDAY 2:30.

Augustus Piton's Elaborate production of the Great Naval Drama,

"THE GUNNER'S MATE" Prices, 25c, to $1.00. Matinee, 50c. oct28-31

BARTON'S AUDITORIUM THEATRE.

M. Barton, Prop. W. H. Truehart, Mgr. The only First-class Vaudeville Theatre in Norfolk. New features every week, playing all First-class Vaudeville Acts. Matinee Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays.

Admission, ..... 15, 25 and 50 cts. Lavar Sisters, Singing and Dancing Sou- bretttes. Ivy and Mack, Musical Comedians and 20 others. oct27-31

They Are Here!

Jackets from $5.00 and up. Furs from $3.75 and up. Golf Capes from $2.75 and up. Blankets from $1.25 per pair and up. Table Damask from 25c. and up. Napkins from 75c. per dozen and up. Doilies from 25c. per dozen and up. Comforts from $1.00 and up. And many other goods not space to mention.

L. H. Whitehurst

336 MAIN STREET.

Both Phones.

City Collector's Office, Norfolk, Va., October 1, 1900.

Notice to Taxpayers

The rolls of the Commissioner of the Revenue, containing the list of the city taxes for the year 1900, have been placed in my hands for collection. I will be at my office between the hours of 9 A. M. and 6 P. M., from the first to the thirty-first day of October, inclusive, for the purpose of receiving the same.

Special Attention is Called to Those Owning Personal Taxes.

By prompt settlement persons will avoid annoyance of additional penalties, both by the City Collector and Collector of Delinquent Personal Taxes.

W. L. BAKER, City Collector, oct21-td

Personal and Social.....

The Chrysanthemum Season Has Arrived—Several Very Pleasing Social Functions Occurred in the Week Just Closed.

A delightful card party was given Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Frank Anthony Walke, at her residence, on Grace street, in honor of Mrs. Malborough Pegre, nee Miss Susie Payne, of Charlotte, N. C. Seven-hand euchre was played and greatly enjoyed, Miss Elizabeth Tunstall carrying off first honors in the shape of a silver pin holder. The second prize, a vase, was won by Miss Margaret Old. The consolation was cut for by all. Miss Old, again having luck on her side, presented the prize to Mrs. Pegre. This was a bridal cake book, bound in white kid, and contained the following "Recipe for Cooking Husbands." (If you don't care to use it, please arrange that sentence to "a" instead of "the following"):

"A good many husbands are utterly spoiled by mismanagement. Some women abate it as if their husbands were bladders, and blow them up. Others let them freeze by their carelessness and indifference. Some keep them in a stew by irritating ways and words; others roast them. Some keep them in pie, all their lives. It can not be supposed that any husband will be tender and good-natured in this way, but they are really delicious when properly treated."

selecting your husband, you should not be guided by the stately appearance, as in buying mackerel, nor by the golden tint, as if you wanted a salmon. Be sure to select him yourself, as tastes differ. Do not go to market for him, as the best are always brought to your door. It is far better to have none, unless you will patiently learn how to cook him.

A preserving kettle of the finest porcelain is best, but if you have nothing better, an earthenware pipkin will do with care. See that the linen in which you wrap him is nicely washed and mended, with the required number of buttons and strings tightly sewed on. Tie him in the kettle by a strong silk cord called comfort, as the one called duty is apt to be weak.

"Make a clear, steady fire out of love, neatness and cheerfulness. Set him as near this as seems to agree with him. If he spatters and lizzes, do not be anxious; some husbands do this until they are quite done. Add a little sugar, in the form of what confectioners call kisses, but no vinegar or pepper on any account. A little spice improves him; it must be used with judgment. Do not stick any sharp instrument into him to see if he is becoming tender. Stir him gently, watching the while, lest he lie too flat and close to the kettle, and so become useless. You cannot fail to know when he is done. "If thus treated you will find him very reliable, agreeing nicely with you and the children, and he will keep as long as you want, unless you become careless and set him in too cool a place."

Dainty and tempting refreshments were then brought forth and duly enjoyed. Those who accepted Mrs. Walke's hospitality were Mrs. Pegre, Mrs. Charles Lloyd, Mrs. William S. White, Mrs. Harry S. Herman, Mrs. Elizabeth Lunskel, Miss Margaret Old and Miss Etta Smith.

The ladies of the Okeanos Memorial Society of St. Paul's B. Church will have a reception on November 8th, to which the congregation is invited. This reception will be held in the Sunday school room, and will last from 8 to 10 p. m. A silver offering is asked. This promises to be a very pleasant occasion, and is looked forward to by those who will attend.

The Children's Branch of the Daughters of the Confederacy held their first meeting of this season yesterday morning at the residence of the chairman, Mrs. F. A. Walke, on Grace street. The doll sale was discussed and other matters of importance to the little ones were brought up. The doll sale, which is an annual affair, will take place in the early part of December.

The series of hops which are given by the officers of the navy yard each winter at St. Paul's B. Church, those given heretofore in the afternoon, those will take place in the evening.

Prof. A. Belleza held one of his enjoyable soirees last evening at the Monday night. Quite a number of young people were present to enjoy two hours of dancing to the inspiring strains as played by Prof. Belleza's band, and it was with regret they heard the strains of "Home, Sweet Home," so pleasantly had the minutes flown.

Mrs. Frederick Marshall Killum is visiting friends in Baltimore.

Mrs. Malborough Pegre, of Charlotte, N. C., is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Payne, on Freemason street.

Miss Lucy Baylor will leave Monday for Baltimore, where she will attend school this session.

Miss Landau Walton left Friday for New York.

Miss Bessie Doyle, who has been visiting friends in Richmond, has returned home.

Rev. B. D. Tucker is in Louisville, Ky.

Mr. Charles Lipscomb, of Washington, is stopping at the Monticello.

Dr. Thomas H. Barnes, of Nensemond county, spent several days in Norfolk last week.

Mrs. Robert Coupland, of Covington, Ky., is visiting her mother, Mrs. H. B. Whitehead, on Boush street.

Miss Elizabeth Minetree, of Washington, D. C., who has been the guest of Miss Mary Lou Gray, on Bute street, left Saturday for Petersburg, where she will visit relatives.

Mrs. Richard Wright has returned from Richmond.

Mr. George Goodridge is in town, seeing his old friends.

Miss Elizabeth Baker, of Suffolk, is the guest of Mrs. Harry Herman, in Ghent.

Miss Bessie Prime, of Courtland, is visiting Miss Fanny Culpeper, on Bute street.

Miss Virginia Jones left Tuesday to visit friends in Suffolk.

Mrs. J. C. Wise, of Warrenton, spent several days in Norfolk last week.

Mr. Jack Minetree, of Washington, is in town.

Miss Blanche Anderson has returned from a visit to Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Benton Davis Thomas have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Eupenia Davis, to Mr. Keith Falconer Grant. The ceremony will take place on Monday afternoon, November 12th, at 4 o'clock, at St. Paul's Church. Miss Thomas is quite popular with a large circle of friends, who wish them much happiness, and the groom-elect is a well-known coal dealer of our city, who came to Norfolk several years ago from Fauquier county, where his people are very prominent.

The engagement has been announced of Miss Clara Fox and Mr. Ernest Wilson, of Richmond. The marriage will take place at the home of Mrs. John Walker, on York street, November 8th, and will be a very quiet one.

Mrs. William Turner, of Roanoke, is the guest of Mrs. Henry Turner, on Bute street.

Mr. W. E. Cohoon, of Suffolk, is in the city.

A club which has recently been organized for this winter, met for the first time Friday evening at the home of Miss Virginia Pollard, on Dunmore street. Games of all kinds were indulged in, and greatly enjoyed. During the evening refreshments of a tempting nature were served. At the close of the evening all voted the club a success, and are eager for the time to arrive for the next meeting. Those who were present on this occasion were Miss Virginia Gordan, Miss Louise Hunter, Miss Etta Sharp, Miss Mary Wilkinson, Miss Lucretia Godwin, Miss Hattie Page and Miss Virginia Pollard.

Col. Muse, U. S. M. C., who lived in Norfolk for a long while, is visiting friends here.

They are here—those gorgeous chrysanthemums which bring to us each year. We hail their appearance with delight, loving their bright faces and stately heads. As we walk along the street they beckon to us from the flower's windows, saying "come with you, we are too pretty to be passed and left." We could not do without them, and during the year we anticipate the season of autumn, the time when the chrysanthemum blooms, mingling with the autumnal tints its varied and multi-colored blossoms. Coming last when the other flowers are gone we cling to this semblance of summer, and worship at the shrine of the Queen of Fall.

A delightful affair of the past week was the reception tendered Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Barr by the people of St. Paul's Church, Thursday evening. This reception was given to introduce the people of the congregation to their new rector and his wife, and it proved a most pleasing event. The Guild Room, where the guests assembled, had been beautifully dressed for the occasion, flags draping the walls and an abundance of growing plants and foliage of every description filled every nook and corner, the whole scene being lighted by soft lamps, which cast a ruddy glow on the assembled crowd.

Dr. and Mrs. Barr received the guests, who were introduced by a committee appointed for the purpose, while the young ladies of the church plied hither and thither with delectable viands, seeing to the welfare of those present. Special invitations were extended to the ministers and their families of the other denominations in Norfolk, which invitations were accepted by quite a number. The reception was a great success in every way and will long live a memory with many who attended.

Dr. and Mrs. Herbert Milton Nash have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Elizabeth Parker, to Dr. Edwin Gray Lee. The event, which will be a full dress affair, and quite a swell occasion, will take place on Wednesday afternoon, November 7th, at 4 o'clock, at St. Paul's Church. The ceremony will be followed by a reception at the home of the bride's father, on Freemason street, to which only the most intimate friends and relatives of the contracting parties will be invited.

The first of the Germans to be given by the Senior German Club this season will take place on November 16th, at the Masonic Temple. This German heralds the opening of the season. Then the debutantes will appear, and the ball will be started rolling. So it is an occasion of great interest to the smart set.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Webster Edgar, U. S. N., have taken the house formerly occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Potter, on Freemason street, and will spend the Winter there.

Miss Edith Tunstall left last week to spend the Winter in New York, much to the regret of her friends in Norfolk.

Mr. and Mrs. Temple Broughton have returned from their wedding trip North.

Miss May Wheat, of Berryville, is the guest of Miss Nellie Little, in Ghent.

Mr. Thomas W. Brander, of Richmond, spent several days in Norfolk last week.

Mrs. George W. Paine, of Suffolk, spent Tuesday in Norfolk with relatives.

Miss Nellie Little has returned from Berryville, where she has been spending the summer.

Miss Elizabeth Hurecamp, of Fredericksburg, who was maid of honor at the Cose-Deen nuptials, left last week to visit friends in Richmond.

Mr. and Mrs. Nussbaum left last week for a visit to New York and Philadelphia.

Miss Annie Deik has returned from a visit to her mother in Suffolk.

Mr. Henry Venable is in Albemarle county.

Mrs. W. T. Brooke and family returned ed Wednesday from Hot Springs, where they have been for several months.

Mrs. Bruce Blamire returned Tuesday from New York, where she has been the guest of her daughter, Mrs. William W. Robertson.

Lieutenant Commander Clinton K. Curtis spent several days in Washington last week.

Miss Mary Boykin, of Smithfield, spent a few days in Norfolk last week.

Mrs. Wood and daughter, Mary, who have been the guests of Mrs. J. P. Johnson, on Granby street, returned Tuesday to their home in North Carolina.

Mrs. Puller and Mr. Duncan Puller have returned after a pleasant visit to New York.

Mr. Alexander Ralli, of New York, is stopping at the Monticello.

Mr. M. A. Agelasto is quite sick at Dr. G. W. Thayer's sanitarium with typhoid fever.

Mr. and Mrs. Yeatman Burroughs are back from their wedding journey.

Miss Anna Taylor is quite sick at her home on York street.

Mrs. Tazewell Taylor Hubbard, who is very ill, was reported better yesterday.

Mr. Bridger, one of the leading attorneys of Winston, N. C., is in the city on legal business. He is now at the New Atlantic. He will return to his home in the Old North State tomorrow.

Miss Mamie Cotton, of Arlington Place, gave a delightful party to a number of her friends Thursday evening in honor of her birthday. The evening was most pleasantly spent by all present, especially listening to the well-rendered program, consisting of an instrumental solo by Miss Anne Baker; vocal solo by Mr. Will Walker; recitation, by Mr. John Harrison; vocal solo, by Mr. John Hodges; instrumental solo, by Mr. Harry Peterson; vocal solo, by Mr. L. Carty; recitation, by Mr. L. Carty; vocal solo, by Misses Daisy and Mamie Cotton. Mr. E. W. Adams photographed all present by flashlight. At 11 o'clock they repaired to the dining-room, where a bountiful supper was spread for about thirty in number. Miss Mamie received many handsome and useful presents.

Miss Lucile Ramsay, of Norfolk, is visiting relatives on Madison avenue, New York city.

Rev. A. C. Hopkins, D. D., of Charlestown, W. Va., is the guest of Major G. Humphreys, of No. 131 College Place.

Dr. J. J. Mewter and wife, of Mount Joy, Pa., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Clay, on Boush street. Mrs. Mewter is a sister of Mrs. Clay.

Miss Mamie A. Burns is the guest of the Misses Eure, of Freemason street.

Mrs. Grace Harding is very ill at St. Vincent's Hospital.

Mrs. James A. Dawkins returned to Baltimore Friday evening after a visit of several weeks in Norfolk. She was accompanied by Miss Lucy Deming, who will remain there for several weeks.

Many rarely beautiful things for wedding-gift giving are to be seen at Nussbaum's, on Granby street—the "wedding present store."

Dr. Thomas H. Barnes, of Nansmond county, was in the city yesterday.

Mr. John H. Ingram, of New York, and Mr. Charles W. Sinclair, of Baltimore, are the guests of Mr. Minton W. Talbot, in Freemason street.

Mrs. Harry Kemp and son, Harry, Jr., arrived yesterday from Southwest Virginia, where they have been spending the summer, and joined Mr. Kemp. They will make their headquarters in Norfolk for the winter.

Messrs. B. B. Lawson, F. O. Rogers and Dr. H. B. Hare, of Baltimore, were in the city yesterday.

Rev. A. C. Hopkins, D. D., of Charlestown, W. Va., a distinguished member of the Presbyterian Synod, which closed its session at Newport

Continued on Page 6.

OTHER LOCAL ON PAGE 5.

FOR MONDAY.

Show us a fault in our business and we stop it at once, no matter how profitable. We don't believe a fault can ever be really profitable.

They said our Ague Cure was too bitter and powerful for the weak digestion of malaria illness.

We have corrected the fault. It's cost us thousands of dollars to do it, but we have corrected it.

And there is no better medicine under the sun for every form of malaria than this New Malaria and Ague Cure.

J. C. AYER COMPANY, Practical Chemists, Lowell, Mass.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla, Ayer's Pills, Ayer's Ague Cure, Ayer's Hair Vigor, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, Ayer's Comestone.

NUSBAUM'S.

Minute from Main Street.

Concerning Church Books

—Episcopal Hymnals and Prayer Books in particular.

Without hesitancy, and not in the spirit of brag, we claim to have the largest and best assorted line that you've ever clapped eyes on.

The new and dainty shapes—the narrow oblong ones—in colors to match the Sunday gown. And the ones in large clear print for easy reading that grandma likes so much.

Some plain, some sumptuously bound, and coming from the greatest church-book publishing house in the world—

The Oxford University Press of London

—their wearing qualities are unquestioned.

Separate Prayer Books—25c., 50c., 60c. and up.

Separate Hymnals—25c., 50c., 60c. and up.

Combination Hymnals and Prayer Books, in sets, at 75c., $1, $1.50, $2 on up to $6.50.

The Bibles, Psalms and Testaments are here, too—plenty of them.

If you love books

you'll love Nussbaum's—it's a perfect rendezvous for book lovers.

There's not a book published that we can't get for you if it isn't already here. The new copyrighted books are here the same day they are published, and always at less than the publishers' prices!

Frequently ladies come here and read two or three chapters of a book to "see if it's good"—enough to give an insight to the book's worth. We'd like you to do the same.

ELEANOR. By Mrs. Humphrey Ward. A novel published since "Trilby" has given promise of so large a sale as ELEANOR. Competent critics have pronounced it the greatest work of fiction since George Eliot's day. It is a stronger story than Mrs. Ward's "Robert Elsmere." Publishers' price, $1.50. Our low price, $1.19.

A WOMAN TENDERFOOT. By Grace Gollatin Seton-Thompson. In addition to its attractive outdoor flavor this book contains specific advice on the subject of camping dress and outfit for women. Publishers' price, $2. Our low price, $1.49.

MR. DOOLEY'S PHILOSOPHY. Dedicated to the memory of the world who suffers and are silent. Cleverly illustrated by E. W. Kemble and others. Publishers' price, $1.50. Our low price, $1.19.

ELLEN TERRY. By Clement Scott. JOHN DREW. By Edward A. Mearns. Uniformly bound. Containing handsome photographs of each player, and twenty-four half-tones showing the famous folk in their various characters. Publishers' price, $1.50. Our low price, $1.19.

Many of the Christmas Fashion Books are already here, eager to aid you in the selection of your mid-winter gowns.

NUSBAUM'S.

100-102 Granby Street. Opposite the Monticello Hotel. BOTH 'PHONES—Ten Sixty.

Another Special Sale of

DRY GOODS.

FOR MONDAY.

ALL THE DRESS GOODS AND SILKS, CONSISTING OF 2,000 DOLLARS WORTH OF ALL STYLES AND QUALITY OF SILKS AND 5,000 DOLLARS WORTH OF BLACK AND COLORED DRESS GOODS. ALL TO BE SOLD 4 OFF ON MONDAY, BESIDES THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS WORTH OF OTHER GOODS.

C. E. JENKINS,

MONTICELLO HOTEL.

So. Bell 'Phone, 1029.

PIANOS

TUNED

By Our Expert Factory Tuners. All work guaranteed. If your Piano needs tuning or repairing drop us a postal, or call up either phone 1109.

STIEFF'S

66 GRANBY STREET.

The Hustlers,

BASS, STEWART CO.,

Best Baltimore Hams.....13c. lb.

Best Picnic Hams.....9c. lb.

Best Baltimore Lard.....9c. lb.

Best Baltimore Corned Beef.....5c. lb.

Best Elgin Butter.....25c. lb.

Best Roe Herrings.....20c. doz.

Try our large No. 2 Mackerel, 5c. a piece.

Large No. 1 Mackerel, 10c. a piece. Just received New buckwheat flour. Have your orders, we will please you. 53 NEW MARKET PLACE. Old Phone 1028. New Phone 740.

"OUR WINDOWS T